

A.4. SUB-COMMITTEES

- A.4.1. The CIAM may set up Sub-committees, which are consulted by it for advice on sporting and technical matters in the special category concerned.
- A.4.2. The CIAM elects by secret ballot the Chairman of each Technical Sub-committee for a period of two years, with a compulsory confirmation after one year. He may be re-elected for an unlimited number of terms. He may not serve on more than one Sub-committee. The election shall occur at the Plenary Meeting during the year in which a Sub-committee has a regularly scheduled meeting for decision purposes and in which a World Championship for the subject category is held (see A.12 for the schedule).
- A.4.3. Each Sub-committee shall consist of a minimum of six members including the Chairman, all of different nationality, regardless of the number of members. The Sub-committee Chairmen shall on their own initiative invite the members, but they must be approved by their National Airsports Controls. The NACs may suggest but not appoint alternative members. The Sub-committee Chairman must publish on the official FAI website, a list of the members of his Committee by 1 May of every year.
- A.4.4. The Sub-committee members serve as individual expert consultants and are not obliged to represent the views of their National Airsports Controls.

A.5 FORMS OF SUB-COMMITTEE WORK

- A.5.1 The Sub-committee Chairmen are free to organize the work of their Sub-committees, meetings, correspondence etc., as they consider most efficient. The Chairmen must send a list of the members of their respective Sub-committees as soon as they have been established to the CIAM President and the FAI office. The same procedure applies for any changes in the membership of the Subcommittees.
- A.5.2. The Sub-committees may in no case publish recommendations, guides or rules, which have not been previously approved by the CIAM or the Bureau.
